

Bring Your Bills Day & Community Expo

Kurri Kurri

Wednesday 27 May 2020

9am-3pm

Book by 25 May 2020
to secure your spot

This special day organised by EWON, Hunter Water and Kurri Kurri Community Services will connect the people of Kurri Kurri and surrounding areas with agencies that can provide support during COVID-19.

Get help with energy and water bills, including emergency vouchers, rebates and other support, as well assistance with legal issues, wills, power of attorney and more. See the full list of services available on the day below.

How do you get this help?

Please phone Kurri Kurri Community Services on 02 4937 4555 and press Option 1 to book a telephone appointment with one or more of the agencies listed

Book an appointment with one or more of these agencies

Community services

- Kurri Kurri Community Services
- Barkuma Neighbourhood Centre
- Samaritans
- Salvation Army
- Hearing Australia
- Carries Place Domestic Violence and Homelessness Service
- Financial Counselling Hunter Valley Project Inc

Legal

- Legal Aid NSW
- NSW Trustee and Guardian

Energy and water providers

- Alinta Energy
- EnergyAustralia
- Origin Energy
- Hunter Water

Ombudsman services

- Energy & Water Ombudsman NSW
- Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman

You can also call these agencies directly on the day

- Cessnock City Council
024993 4100
- Cessnock Family Support Services
02 4990 4507
- Community Links
02 8622 0456
- LawAccess
1300 888 529
- Red Energy
03 9425 2799

You can contact EWON to make an energy or water complaint.

☎ 1800 246 545 ➤ ewon.com.au
@ complaints@ewon.com.au

✉ Reply Paid 86550, Sydney South NSW 1234
Level 11, 133 Castlereagh Street, Sydney

To speak to EWON using an interpreter, contact the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) on 131 450. People who are deaf, hearing impaired or who have a speech impediment can contact EWON through the National Relay Service on 133 677.